White Sox to win. They want to see "Commy" land on top, because they know that he will treat his players better than any other man in either league if he wins. The great crowds that gather at the South Side ball park to watch his team are ever ready to cheer the famous leader whenever he makes his appearance among the players. And, what's more, he deserves every bit of the great popularity he enjoys at the present time. Charley Comiskey says he will take the White Sox to Europe next winter if they should land the pennant once more, and "Commy" generally keeps his word.
